

INSTRUCTIONEducational Television/Telecommunications

Educational television is an aid to be used by instructional personnel to enhance the learning opportunities of all students. Principals, teachers and librarians are urged to review and evaluate the worthiness of Educational Television (ETV) programs and materials in light of Stafford County curricula. The school board, within budget limitations, will provide modern television components and systems at all grade levels in all schools.

Editor's Note

See also guidelines for off-air recording of broadcast programming for educational purposes at division regulation R6-49.3.

Adopted by School Board: March 24, 1987
Amended by School Board: May 12, 1992